

MADLIBS

Warble for Lilac-Time.

Warble me _____, for _____ of lilac:
time.

Sort me O _____ and lips, for Nature's _____, and sweet life's _____.

Souvenirs of earliest _____ - birds
_____ and the _____ berries,

Gather the _____ signs, (as children with _____, or stringing _____)

_____ in April and May - the croaking in the _____ - the elastic _____.

Bees, _____, the sparrow with
its _____ notes,

Blue-bird, and _____ swallow - nor forget the _____ hole, flashing
his golden _____.

The tranquil sunny _____, the clinging _____, the _____.

Spiritual, airy _____, humming, on _____ wings,

Shimmer of _____, with _____ in
them - the _____ above,

WALT WHITMAN

MADLIBS

All that is _____ and sparkling -
the _____ running,
The _____ woods, the _____ Feb.
enury days, and the _____ making;
The _____, where he _____, bright-
eyed, brown _____,
With _____ clear call at
_____, and again at

Or flitting among the _____ of the _____, building
the _____ of his _____;
The melted _____ of _____ - the _____ sending forth its yellow-green _____;
- For spring-time is _____! is _____!
and what is _____ in it and it?
Thou, _____, unloosen'd - the _____ _____ after I _____ not what;
Come! let us _____ here no longer -
let us be _____ and _____!